

Become an Employee Survey Consultant Partner

---

About the Program

Since 1996, DecisionWise has supported independent consulting firms by providing research-based and easy-to-use employee engagement survey tools. Our consulting partners value their relationship with DecisionWise because of our top-notch support, excellent survey tools, in-depth reporting, and respect for their client relationships.

What the Consultant Partner Receives from DecisionWise

- Commitment from DecisionWise that we will not compete for OD consulting business with any client you bring to us for an employee engagement survey
- A designated DecisionWise assessment advisor (project manager) to work with you and your clients
- Full DecisionWise administrative support in building, administering and interpreting employee surveys
- Customized surveys for each client
- Sales support as requested by the partner
- Complete access to all of your clients' data via the DecisionWise LIS online reporting tool
- Customized marketing material for employee engagement surveys
- Access to DecisionWise research and best practices on employee engagement
- Monthly training webinars for partners
- Easy billing to client or partner at the partner's direction
  - A percentage of the employee survey fee if client is billed directly

Requirements of Consultant Partners

- Experience in OD consulting for five or more years
- A focus on leadership development, organizational behavior and development, human capital or employee satisfaction and engagement
- Willingness to allow DecisionWise to drive the employee engagement survey process directly
- Ability and desire to deliver the OD consulting informed by the survey process
- Must have an initial client before being officially accepted into the partner program